

'Twas The Night Before Christmas

'Twas the night before Christmas
Two guests in our house
Were playing some bridge
With me and my spouse.

"Please tell me," she shouted
"Why didn't you double?
Twas plain from the start
We had them in trouble."

"Tis futile, my Dear –
I am taking no stand.
So please stop your nagging
Let's play the next hand."

"Remember next time"
She said with a frown
"To double a contract
That's sure to go down

So, I picked up my cards
In a downtrodden state.
Then I opened one Spade
and awaited my fate.

The guy sitting South
Was like many I've known.
He bid and played
In a world all his own.

"Two Diamonds," he countered
With scarcely a care.
The Ace in his hand
Gave him courage to spare.
My wife, smiling faintly
And tossing her head,
Leaned over the table,
"Double," she said.

And North for some reason
I cannot determine
Bid two Hearts,
like preaching a sermon

I grinned as I doubled
Enjoying the fun,
And turned round to South
To see where he would run.

But South, undistressed
Not at loss for a word came forth with "two Spades"
Did I hear what I heard?

The other two passed
And in sheer disbelief
I said "Double, my friend,
That'll bring you to grief."

South passed with a nod
His composure serene.
My wife with a flourish
Led out the Heart Queen.

I sat there and chuckled
Inside o'er their fix.
But South very calmly
Ran off his eight tricks.

He ruffed the first Heart
In his hand right away.
And then trumped a Club
On the very next play.

He crossruffed the hand
At a breathtaking pace,
'Til I was left holding
Five Spades to the Ace.

In anguish my wife cried
"Your mind's growing old.
You should see that

Six No Trump for us is ice-cold!"

By doubling this time
I'd committed a sin.
It just goes to prove
That you never can win.

"I doubled, my dear,
Since I trusted your lead.
A Diamond you should Have produced with great speed.
Two thousand points you'd
Find then was our score.
(Not to mention the honours
To make even more).

"Your scoring, my darling,
Would have cost us a bomb.
Two thousand points would
Have surely been wrong.

What trick did they win
That gives them that score?
By ditching the Diamonds
we get three hundred more."

♦ MG – President's Update

	Good news! We have another person committed to playing more bridge. Bad news! It is Kay Moyes!
Mark Guthrie

Hi folks,

Kay, who many of you will know, for her tireless work with our teaching programs.

For many years Kay has done the (mostly unseen) work to ensure people sign up for our lessons, pay for them, get the notes and other bits and pieces, and checks in with people who forget to attend or otherwise might be lost to the bridge world. Although mostly invisible to the rest of us, without Kay our teaching services would not be nearly as effective as they are, and we get constant feedback from players on the great job that Kay does. She will be sadly missed but her contribution to the club has been enormous and who wouldn't wish her to have more time to play bridge with us.

Not much else from me this month as I'm actually away on holiday (not that it makes much difference). My dad and brother are over from the UK, and we've been on a road trip to Adelaide and spent a week in Cairns. My brother has gone back but my dad is still here for a bit longer enjoying not being in England. Can't say I blame him, it's much nicer and more sensible here and we have a much lower rate of PMs/Y (Prime Ministers Per Year).

You will probably have noticed that our website has had a bit of restyling done. Shaz and Leo have done a fantastic job on it. It's all the same great content, but now it should work a little better for attracting new players and for viewing on smartphones. Websites in any organisation are always a contentious point, you can never keep everyone happy, but I'm confident now that our website is pleasing enough for all of the different uses it performs and we can continue to focus on the content, which thanks to Leo, is regularly updated and extremely topical.

As you may recall, we lost Shaz for three months when she went on "holiday" to prevent another galaxy from collapsing or rescue orphans from an evil dictator or whatever it actually was that she did. A strange thing has happened though, one Shaz went away and four of them came back! As we as doing the work with Leo on the website, Shaz 2-4 have also been working with Mike on some spreadsheets to make the finances easier for him and the team when Margaret leaves, working with the teaching team on marketing, setting up an appeal for flood victims and almost certainly a dozen other things I don't know about.

Anyway, I said this would be short, so that's all you are getting. I'm off for a pina colada by the pool.

Managers' Report December 2022

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all involved with running the North Shore Bridge Club. Staff, Committee and all the volunteers and helpers. It is very much appreciated from all the members to keep the club running smoothly.

This year has been a big learning curve for everyone seeing how life is going to be after Covid. NSBC has a great online platform as well as the two Face to Face venues East Lindfield and The Willis.

It has been challenging to get members back to Face to Face bridge, but our numbers are now getting stable except for a couple of sessions that still have small numbers.

A special thanks to Leo Goorevich for all his hard work on the NSBC Website we all really appreciate what you do and volunteering your time for NSBC.

A special thanks to another volunteer who puts together one of the best Newsletters each and every month Kevin Davies thanks Kevin very much appreciate your work and efforts.

The NSBC committee especially two members Sharon Thompson and Jake Andrew who have put in endless hours helping me out with their expertise has been fantastic.

Kind regards
Mike Prescott

2023 Membership Fees

We are now coming up to the end of our financial year and the 2023 membership charge will be automatically charged to your pp account at the beginning of January.

The committee have decided to keep the membership fee discounted from $70 to $50 if paid by end of 28th February 2023 for those living within the Sydney Metro area as well as all home club members.

For those living outside the Sydney Metro area and only playing online $25 if paid before 28 February 2023.

Those members who are continuing their membership do not have to do anything other than top up your pp account to ensure there are enough funds to cover your membership and your session fees.

Those members who are not renewing should let us know as soon as you can. This will help us by reducing the administration work greatly. I would appreciate your assistance in this matter.
